

In-class worksheet: Chapter 1: What is the Bible?

Name the two original sources for Catholic teaching.

What does “inerrant” mean?

What does “inspired” mean?

What does “infallibility” mean?

What is the purpose of the Magisterium?

Who is the author of the Bible?

Explain the meaning of number 107 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

Why do we say the Bible is “objective history”?

What is “salvation history”?

How does salvation history differ from all other history?

What is a “covenant”?

What does the word “canon” mean?

What are the “deuterocanonical” books?

In what covenant period are we living?

In-class worksheet: Chapter 2: The Old Testament

Who came to fulfill the Old Testament?

Which two historical figures does Matthew mention as ancestors of Jesus Christ at the beginning of his Gospel?

What does Jesus' genealogy indicate?

What are the four main types of books in the Old Testament? What is the traditional way?

Which books are known as the books of the Law?

What are other names for the books of the Law?

What can we discover from reading the Old Testament?

What are biblical types?

How did Old Testament writers date events?

What are the names of the four sources which contributed to the compilation of the Pentateuch?

What were the points made by Hippolytus and Irenaeus?